

A memoir about glasses, glass ceilings, and a glass half full | Available Everywhere

CATBIRD The Ballad of Barbi Prim

In Catbird: The Ballad of Barbi Prim, the world meets an insightful, opinionated eight-year-old who has already taken a few steps toward becoming a pioneer—but also a shadow of her quirky self. With awkwardness, anxiety, and fear in tow, she embarks on an imperfect but continuing metamorphosis and becomes the strong, well-coiffed heroine of her own story.

If you loved Eleanor Oliphant, you'll adore real-life Barbi Prim.

"Extraordinarily powerful."
—RABBI SALLY J. PRIESAND

"Funny, heartbreaking, and yet bursting with hope."
—HELEN ARONOFF, M.D.

"Celebrates the sweetness of hard-won self-acceptance."
—LOIS WEIS, PH.D.

Audiences: Adult daughters of any age, and anyone whose quirks are underappreciated

Marketing Campaign: National book tour • Book signings and speaking events across the country • National publicity Downloadable Reader's Guides • Book club visits in person or via Skype • Dedicated website: catbirdbook.com & barbaraostfeld.com

Contact: hello@catbirdbook.com

Related Titles: Lisa Brennan-Jobs, Small Fry • Michelle Obama, Becoming • Tara Westover, Educated • Sally Field, In Pieces • Mira Bartók, The Memory Palace

Barbara Ostfeld is the first ordained woman cantor in Jewish history. She served congregations in New York from 1975 to 2002 and then spent ten years working for the American Conference of Cantors. Barbara lives in Buffalo, New York, with her husband and an assortment of mildew-spotted African violets.

ERVA PRESS

print: $17.95
978-0-9980326-1-0

ebook: $9.99
978-0-9980326-3-4

Memoir, 358 pages, 6 x 9

catbirdbook.com